

LG F2100 TU500 DATA CABLE INSTALLATION GUIDE

Installation:

- A. Insert the cable, your Windows should detect this new hardware, and the 'Welcome to the Found New Hardware Wizard' window will turn up, choose the default 'Install the hardware automatically (Recommended)
- B. Insert the Driver CD with, close its auto window, click 'Next' on the 'Welcome to the Found New Hardware Wizard' window, wait for a few second, and click 'Finish'. The driver is installed successfully.
- C. Install LG software: re-insert the CD, wait for a few second, a window of instructions will turn up, choose your phone model, and follow the prompts, it should be installed, and your cable should be ready to be enjoyed.

Trouble shooting:

1. Some newer models such as TU500, might not show up in the CD's compatible list, but you may click on any model number to install as the software being installed is the same, or you may go to <http://au.lgmobile.com/web/web.support.manualRF.laf> to download the PC Sync software for the specific model, and the rest steps would be the same;
 2. if the PC does not seem to see your phone, please right click 'modem'-->properties in Control Panel/System/Hardware/ Device Manager, and find the COM value of the modem (e.g. 4);
 3. Launch the PC Sync, in 'settings', there is a interface for you to set the same COM value (e.g. 4) you just found, and it should work from then on...
 4. The other possible reason for not connecting is that your phone's settings stopping the phone from connecting with data cable, e.g., you may have to go into the connectivity menu in the phone and change it from the memory card to the data cable.
- Please note: The instructions here may only be used for information only, the actual installation might not happen exactly as instructed, due to the product development, and various settings of PCs, and the software versions etc.
